Near Vienna Hit

ALGIERS (AP) — U.S. heavy bombers of the Northwest African Air Force bombed Messerschmitt factory at Wiener Neustadt, near Vienna, for the second time, it was announced late today.

First reports from returning pilots showed the attack was highly successful.

Wiener Neustadt was last bombed by U.S. planes Aug. 14.

Coal Strike Halts
Many Vessels

Every coal-burning coastal and deep-sea ship sailing out of Vancouver and Victoria will be forced into idleness if the Western Canada coal strike lasts 10 days or two weeks, operators of the vessels forecast today.

U.S. Coal 'Frozen'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Ickes this afternoon froze 2,000,000 tons of soft coal in transit on the railroads and simultaneously decreed no consumer can get delivery of soft coal unless he has less than 10 days' supply.

Russians Capture
Port On Dnieper

LONDON (CP) — The Red Army has captured the Dnieper port of Kakhovka, site of an important crossing of the big river 50 miles east of Kherson, Moscow announced tonight.

No Coal for Striker

EDMONTON (CP) — An Edmonton coal dealer reported today he had received an order from a coal miner who is on strike. The order was refused because "we have no coal on hand to fill any orders at present," the dealer said.

Canadian Tanks
Score Victory

WITH CANADIAN FORCES IN ITALY (CP) — Ten of the 14 German tanks knocked out in the Battle of Termoli — the biggest Canadian tank battle of the war — fell to guns of the Three Rivers Tank Regiment of the Canadian 1st Army Tank Brigade, it is now permitted to be disclosed.

New Gold Strike

WINNIPEG (CP) — Gold discoveries have been made at Snow Lake, 90 miles northeast of The Pas, Man., the Winnipeg Tribune said in a newspaper story today.

Scouts from a score of large mining companies have already staked claims in the neighborhood, the paper said.

Turkish Minister
Hurries to Cairo

ANKARA (AP) — The Turkish Foreign Minister hastened to Cairo today for conferences with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, less than 24 hours after this neutral nation's President had more clearly aligned the country with the United Nations' ideals.

Numan Menemcioglu and Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, British Ambassador to Turkey, were en route to Cairo.

Nurse Battles Thug

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP) — A member of the Victorian Order of Nurses today attempted unsuccessfully to frustrate the noon-hour robbery of the east side branch of the Bank of Toronto by four armed and masked men who escaped with about $1,000.

The nurse, Ida Bull, grasped the gun one man was holding and grappled with him until one of his companions struck her on the head. Then the men dashed into a waiting car and fled.

Berlin, Shambles

BERKEEEN (CP) — The R.A.F.-R.C.A.F. raids on Berlin are laying waste the capital of Nazism as if a "giant scythe" had been swept through the city and in May, 1943, "the city for the most part was shambles and the Nazis and people alike, horribly scared of what the night might bring."

That is the picture of Berlin as seen by Frederick Buxton of Aberdeen, 37-year-old Royal Army Medical Corps driver, the only man among the 3,000 Allied prisoners of war recently repatriated who was held in Berlin.

VICTORY

PRICE FIVE CENTS

What Is Each One of Us Going to Do About This?

IT IS WITH regret that, as Chairman of the National War Finance Committee, I must advise you that subscriptions to the Fifth Victory Loan in Victoria are falling far short of our objective. A much heavier rate of investment must be obtained for the remainder of the campaign, or our City will fall in its obligations to the country and its fighting men.

May I, therefore, ask you to use all the power of your office to draw public attention to these facts and to the fact that Victoria boys who are meeting the enemy on the battle fields, look to the home front for practical demonstrations of our readiness to support them and supply the arms and necessities of their engagements.

Yours very truly,
"J. W. Spencer,"

Chairman, National War Finance Committee of Vancouver Island.

The foregoing letter is addressed to Mayor McGavin. However, what it is addressed to every person in Greater Victoria.

The fact is that this community is falling down on its Victory Loan quota. This means that each of us is not subscribing either what we could or what we should.

It all comes down to a matter of personal responsibility for each individual.

What is each one of us as an individual going to do about it?

Labor Minister, Coal Miners Talk 2 Hours As Strike Goes On

By JACK WILLIAMS

OTTAWA (CP) — Conferences between Labor Minister Mitchell and representatives of District 18, United Mine Workers of America, in an effort to settle a strike of 8,500 B.C. and Alberta coal miners were adjourned today after a two-hour discussion.

Tentative arrangements were made for a further conference tomorrow. It was understood that in the meantime Mr. Mitchell will report to the cabinet on his talks with the union representatives.

Robert Livett, U.M.W.A. district president, who headed the union delegation, and Mr. Mitchell both declined to discuss this morning's conference in any detail.

"We discussed the general situation and we will probably meet again tomorrow," Mr. Livett said.

Asked if he planned to report on the conference to union officials in the west, he reported: "There is nothing to report on."

Conference Starts
On Cheerful Note

The conference started on a cheerful note with the union delegation shaking hands with Mr. Mitchell, his deputy minister, Arthur Macnamara, and M. Maclean, director of industrial relations for the Labor Department.

When the delegates left the minister's office, where the meeting was held behind closed doors, they had a more serious expression. They left immediately for the hotel, brief cases tucked under their arms.

At times during the discussion reporters in a waiting room outside the minister's office could hear voices raised slightly, but there was no indication anger was displayed.

The attitude of the union dele-

Victoria Appeals

VANCOUVER (CP) — Appeals dismissed today in the B.C. Court of Appeal included one by the Crown from Judge H. H. Shandley's acquittal in Victoria of Clement O'Leary on a charge of gross indecency. Another appeal dismissed was from Judge Shandley's order to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickenson for possession of three rooms in their Victoria home occupied by Cpl. and Mrs. Douglas J. Parlbay.

Restore 3-Cent Mail

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee backtracked today on the out-of-town letter rate, agreeing to leave the charge at three cents, instead of raising it to four cents, as approved Monday.

The action left $2,035,000,000 in the new tax bill, against administration requests for $10,500,000,000 in additional revenue.

Wife Loses Timber

VANCOUVER (CP) — The B.C. Appeal Court today dismissed the appeal of Mrs. Amylita G. Cole that she be released from the return 14 Vancouver Island timber licenses valued at $150,000 to her ex-husband, Howard Cole. Mrs. Cole claimed Cole had given her the licenses shortly after she married him in Florida.

Allies Advance,
Take Large Part Of Nazis' Ridges

By EDWARD KENNEDY

ALGIERS (AP) — Allied 5th Army troops, battling against fierce enemy opposition, have pushed forward to occupy large parts of Massico Ridge and Matese Mountain, two lofty anchors of the German line in Italy, headquarters announced today.

The gains pinched to within artillery range of the communications centre of Venafro and the Garigliano River, 13 miles north of the Volturno River's mouth.

Along the Mediterranean coastal area, British elements of Lieut.-Gen. Mark Clark's army advanced four miles, seizing the town of Casanova, high on the slope of Massico Ridge.

U.S. troops farther inland won a good part of Matese, which dominates the upper Volturno Valley.

The 8th Army on the Adriatic side maintained steady pressure against the Germans, and gained some ground on the Canadian left wing, at the southern end of its front.

One Allied officer described these developments as "very encouraging," but said the Nazis still were fighting fiercely to hold their mountain line from Massico Ridge to Vasto. They were not retreating, he said, but were being muscled out of strategic points in bitter clashes and at considerable cost to the Allied armies.

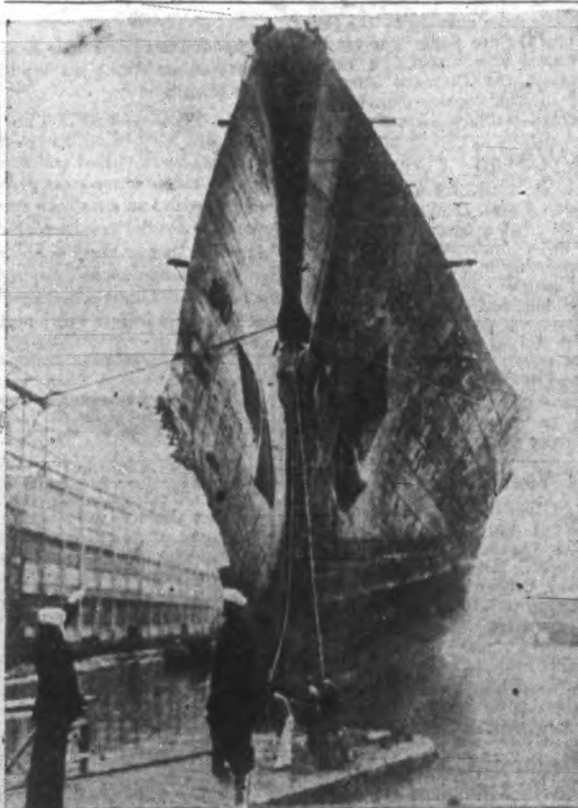

German Flanks
Severely Shaken

The Masico and Matese anchors of the Germans might be described as "severely shaken," this officer added.

On the aerial front, Allied aircraft fanned out in a broad arc of attack Monday, with U.S. heavy bombers hitting the naval base of La Spezia on Italy's west coast, about 50 miles south of Genoa. Medium bombers pounded rail and shipping targets at Rimini and Ancona on the Adriatic side. Fighters supported Yugoslav patriots by hitting at enemy planes over Split in Yugoslavia.

British troops took the villages of Santa Croce and Carinola, and finally wrested Casanova from the enemy. The town, perched at 1,000-foot altitude, is of strategic importance in efforts to win the whole of Massico Ridge. This ridge dominates the lower Volturno valley from its southern slope, and the Garigliano River valley from the northern slope.

The Allied commentator said Casanova's capture put the 5th Army on the road to capture of the whole ridge. If driven off Massico, the Germans probably would have to retire to the Garigliano River banks, and then to the Aurunci Mountains north of that river.

NORMANDIE TO NAVY ON NAVY DAY — A $4,500,000 salvage job completed, the former luxury liner Normandie, once more on an even keel, is shown as she is turned over to the U.S. Navy on Navy Day. The vessel burned and capsized in New York Harbor, Feb. 9, 1942, but she's soon to be moved to drydock, where a $15,000,000 refitting will restore her as the U.S.S. Lafayette.

No Man's Land

Home Front's Task to Shorten War

By DE WITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

We have reached the point in our fight for freedom where we can say with all confidence that Allied arms are going to triumph.

But there's another factor which is of far-reaching importance to us and to future generations — the length of time it takes to win the greatest of all conflicts.

Time, which fought for us in the days of our unpreparedness, is now against us! A protracted war of such unprecedented destructiveness leads to global chaos. We might win with bombs and bullets, and still lose most we hold dear.

TO SAVE MEN

The thing of immediate importance to all of us is to save our soldier lads as much suffering as we can, and bring them back to the homes they are fighting to preserve.

Give them the tools to finish the job, and they'll do more than their share in hewing out an early victory. The more we pile up the resources for our fighting men, by working and by lending of our money, the shorter the war will be.

Do you remember how, as the first World War approached its close, there ran up and down the fighting fronts anxious speculation about who would be the last unfortunate soldier to lose his life before the Armistice was effective? Men who had given more than four years of their lives to the cause — four years of torture and longing for the loved ones back home — kept on fighting and wondering what the end would be.

A week to go — and men were dying all along the great battle fronts. A day to go — and still they fell. An hour, a minute, and finally that last second which claimed its tragic toll.

Only one second — and it makes the difference between death and home.

ARMISTICE 1918

I'll never forget the armistice day of Nov. 11, 1918. For more than four years millions of men had been enduring hell — killing and being killed as they struggled through the valleys of death.

Then the eleventh hour, and sudden silence and peace. It was unreal. The men at the front were unable to sense the meaning of it. Their minds refused to cope with the change.

Out on a muddy Flanders road a British Tommy approached me diffidently and swung into salute with bumping heels as only a veteran can do. His uniform had seen hard service, and his face was deeply marked by lines which carnage had put there for all time.

"Beggin' pardon, sir," he said diffidently, "but could you tell me what this 'ere armistice is? Does it mean, sir, — he paused and looked at me appealingly — 'does it mean the war is ended?'"

THANK YOU

He assured him the war was finished. He stood looking at me, afraid that he had misunderstood. Again I told him the fighting was through.

Only a man relieved from death could have registered such joy. Once more his muddy, hobnailed heels clattered together and, with a "thank you, sir," he wheeled and started down the road.

"Ho, Bill," he yelled to a comrade, "the bloody war is over! Do you 'ear me, Bill — the war is over! Oh, Blimey, but I'm goin' back home to my old woman and the kids."

Speedy Advance Follows Capture
Of Armyansk

LONDON (CP) — The Germans today reported Russian forces had landed in the eastern Crimea north and south of Kerch. Moscow dispatches declared other Red troops were compressing the Nazis into the peninsula trap with a fresh advance from the sealed northern entrance.

A D.N.B. dispatch broadcast by Berlin claimed with regard to the Kerch Strait landings: "The Germans immediately started a counterattack which annihilated the main part of the Bolsheviks, who had landed, and compressed the remainder on a narrow space immediately near the coast."

Russian troops, who cleared the western Caucasus, had stood on the Taman Peninsula opposite the Crimea across the shallow Kerch strait for several weeks. Russia's fleet dominates the Black Sea, into which the Crimea juts.

Moscow advices said the 4th Ukrainian Army of Gen. Feodor Tolbukhin had moved deep into the Crimea beyond captured Armyansk against growing German counterattacks. All land exits from the peninsula were cut off with the capture of Perekop Monday.

CAVALRY IN PURSUIT

Tolbukhin was declared pushing tanks, armored cars, Cossack cavalry and armored motorcycles swiftly into the Crimea. Another arm of his army which seized Perekop, appeared moving northward toward Kherson, 60 miles away, on the route to Odessa and Rumania.

The men of Tolbukhin thrusting into the Crimea were aimed at Dzhankov, main railway junction of the Crimea, from which lines run south to Simferopol and Sevastopol, and east to Feodosia and Kerch.

A Reuters dispatch said groups of Germans were wandering over the Tavris steppes in south Russia, giving themselves up to the Russians after being cut off from their units. At midnight the Russian communiques announced the capture of 6,000 Germans at Perekop.

Immediately ahead of the Russians driving south from Perekop and Armyansk in the Crimea was a desolate steppe. The next natural defence position is in the hills and valleys of Sarabuz, 43 miles south of Dzhankov.

The German radio denied the Crimea had been evacuated.

Hungary Calls Home
Troops in Russia

LONDON (AP) — A Reuters dispatch from Ankara today said Hungary had ordered home all her troops supporting the German armies in south Russia.

Ankara reports, the dispatch said, estimated Hungary had 90,000 troops going garrison duty in the area south of Kiev.

Convictions Quashed

VANCOUVER (CP)—Convictions of George Alfred Eldridge, his wife, Lillian, and Clyde Anvoets for possession of morphine were quashed Monday by Chief Justice Farris in the B.C. Supreme Court.

Stipendiary Magistrate William Irvine of Nelson had convicted them after the narcotic was found in a train on which they were alleged to have traveled from Penitence to Nelson.

Eldridge had been sentenced to 12 months and a $500 fine; Mrs. Eldridge and Anvoets to six months each and fines of $200. The alternative to non-payment of the fines was a further six months' imprisonment.

The Chief Justice said there was a defect in the conviction and warrant of committal contrary to the Opium and Narcotic Drug Act of 1927 when Magistrate Irvine had inserted the stipulation of a further six months' hard labor in prison if the fines were not paid.

New Statement Indicated In Murder Trial

Possibility the crown may seek to introduce a hitherto unpublished statement by William Mitchell in the course of his trial on a charge of murdering Molly Justice was indicated in Assize Court Monday afternoon.

The possibility was barely indicated before the jury was excluded and Gordon A. Cameron, prosecutor, was instructed by Mr. Justice J. M. Coady, presiding, to give P. J. Sinnott, defence counsel, notice of the material.

That development and intensive questioning by Mr. Sinnott of Sgt. Eric Elwell, Saanich police, on information gleaned from a juvenile now serving time for an indecent assault on an 11-year-old child, featured the afternoon sitting.

FOUND PURSE, CIGARETTE CASE

Search of the locality had been continued into February, Sgt. Elwell testified, stating a round rock had been found about 120 feet from the body and a purse and cigarette case, identified later as belonging to Molly Justice, had been located under an overturned bucket beside the overflow from Swan Lake.

Sgt. Elwell identified a stockman's pocket-knife taken from the effects of the accused following his arrest. At that point question arose over a statement. Under cross-examination by Mr. Sinnott, Sgt. Elwell said the bucket concealing the purse and cigarette case was two and one-half miles from Davida Street, said everyone in the district had been under surveillance after the crime and one man had been committed to a mental home following investigations. Mitchell, he said, was arrested five months after the murder on information from the juvenile who had been arrested May 16 on a charge of indecent assault on an 11-year-old girl.

JUVENILE THREAT

The juvenile had been sent to the industrial school following trial. At that trial it was disclosed the juvenile had threatened the child with a knife and said "You will get the same as Molly Justice if you make any outcry," Sgt. Elwell testified.

The juvenile had been brought back for questioning before several police officers in the city detective office and had made certain statements. His statements on the Justice case had come "out of a blue sky," Sgt. Elwell said.

The bucket covering the purse and cigarette case was found 150 yards from the location in which the juvenile had committed the indecent assault on the child, witness said. Although the youth had told a story about Mitchell having a wife, police had been unable to find one, Sgt. Elwell added.

Under re-examination by Mr. Cameron, Sgt. Elwell said he had taken the knife to the Jubilee Hospital where it had been examined. At that time the blade had been firm and exceedingly sharp, he said.

Saanich Police Chief J. Bull testified he had found the round rock, produced as an exhibit, and considered it one a person could carry handily.

MOTHER TESTIFIES

Mrs. Anita Muriel Martin, mother of the deceased, testified her daughter had left for work at the General Warehouse about 8.10 to 8.25 on the morning of Jan. 18 and had been expected for dinner at 6.30. She became anxious when the girl did not arrive for supper and phoned the Vancouver Island Coach Lines to see if the bus had been delayed and later phoned friends to see if Molly was staying with them. She had later thought, she said, that Molly was probably having dinner elsewhere.

Robin Justice, brother of the deceased, said he had seen his sister at noon Jan. 18, visiting her at the store. He and his mother both testified Molly did not usually take the Seymour Street railway track short cut home, but favored a Saanich Road route. She was a strong, healthy girl and would give a

Police Witness In Marigny Trial Draws Verbal Fire From Judge

These are two of the most-photographed figures in the Oakes murder trial at Nassau. Count Alfred de Marigny, lighting a cigarette, is charged with the slaying of Sir Harry Oakes last July. Constantly at his side is Nassau detective Lieut. John Douglas, who testified for the prosecution, quoting de Marigny as saying Oakes "should have been killed anyway."

By E. V. W. JONES

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—The prosecution sought today at the murder trial of Alfred de Marigny to show de Marigny had no opportunity after the discovery of Sir Harry Oakes' body to make the fingerprint offered as evidence that the defendant killed his rich father-in-law.

Police Cpl. Cleophus Knowles said the death room and the bedroom, on which the prosecution contends the fingerprint was found, were under constant guard during the investigation.

His testimony at de Marigny's trial in the Bahamas Supreme Court differed somewhat, however, from the account he gave at a preliminary hearing, and defence counsel, W. E. A. Callender shouted: "Another error. The same as Captain Melchen and the other witnesses."

QUESTIONED AT NOON

Capt. E. W. Melchen of the Miami police and other prosecution witnesses testified de Marigny was taken upstairs at the Oakes estate, Westbourne, for questioning about noon July 9, whereas at the preliminary hearing they had set the time as mid-afternoon.

Knowles said he was assigned July 8—the day the body was discovered—to guard Sir Harry's bedroom and the hallway. He escorted a photographer who took pictures of the death scene, he related. Knowles said the bedroom was moved into the hallway during the day.

"I did not see the accused upstairs July 8," he declared. The next day he was assigned to guard the stairway and to prevent anyone from going to the second floor.

STOOD BY BEDROOM

Under Callender's cross-examination, Knowles said he left his post at the foot of the stairs on his own initiative, and stood in the door to Sir Harry's bedroom, near the head of the stairs. The foot of the stairs was unguarded during this period, between 11.30 a.m. and 12.15 p.m., Knowles said. He denied, however, that the screen and the stairway were wholly unguarded during the period.

Callender then read Knowles' preliminary hearing testimony, in which he said he had not left his post.

"Why do you change your testimony now?" the attorney demanded.

"Because I made an error," Knowles replied.

"Another error," shouted Callender. "The same as Capt. Melchen and the other witnesses."

"Let's get this written down," interposed Chief Justice Sir Oscar Bedford Daly. "Repeat it, please."

READ "SPAPERS"

"When did you realize you were wrong?" Callender asked Knowles.

good account of herself in a scuffle, Robin said. D'Arcy Martin, who resided at the Justice home, said he had been called by police between midnight and 1 a.m., Jan. 19, to identify a body at Sands Mortuary. It had been that of Molly Justice, he said.

Walter Patrick Martin testified he had taken Molly to work in the morning and had looked for her at night after work, but had not seen her. Members of the family agreed all but Patrick Martin had been in the house from 6 on and that Patrick Martin had left once for a few minutes to move a van so garagemen could return his father's car.

Benjamin W. Davies, general manager of the General Warehouse, said Molly worked as a seamstress there in quarters where she would not contact the customers.

Hutchison Sees Postwar Canada As Industrial Nation

WINNIPEG (CP)—Bruce Hutchison, Victoria Columnist, said in an address here Monday night that Canada should easily maintain its position as the third greatest trading nation in the world, but in postwar years would have to make its stand in trade and commerce on a larger scale than ever before.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the young men's section of the Winnipeg Board of Trade, Mr. Hutchison said it was Canada's duty to support the alliance of the great Allied powers. "But," he added, "we must also work to broaden it, because supreme power there is just as dangerous as supreme power in domestic affairs."

The change in Canada as result of the war would have to be a permanent change, making a great industrial nation, he said.

"The miracle of our present production and prosperity could not have occurred but for the fact that a market was, and is, available," he said.

"We must maintain that national income that has developed. We must maintain the world demand for our products."

Canada should never confine itself to the maintenance of a home market after the war. In the revision necessary, the nation would have to mold its policies to one of two forms—foreign trade or home production, he claimed.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Alleged leniency of authorities in granting bail before and after trial on criminal assault and moral delinquency charges will be studied by the Vancouver Ministerial Association, members decided Monday night.

Incorporated in an adopted resolution is the contention that alleged offenders allowed their freedom on bail have repeated the crime within 36 hours.

Light Vote Today In U.S. Elections

WASHINGTON (AP)—A light vote was forecast in off-year elections in seven states in the United States today, but the politicians lifted their weather fingers to detect the stirrings of a presidential breeze for 1944.

President Roosevelt's opinions were thrust into the Philadelphia mayor fight. He sent a letter of approval for William C. Bullitt, former ambassador to Russia and to France, who is the Democratic nominee against the Republican incumbent, Bernard Samuel.

Wendell Willkie and Republican Governor Dewey teamed in New York behind state senator Joe R. Hanley for the lieutenant-governorship, left vacant by death. Mr. Roosevelt and James A. Farley supported William N. Haskell, retired U.S. army general.

In New Jersey Republicans sought to return to power in the state house behind the governorship candidacy of Walter E. Edge. Democrats put up Vincent J. Murphy, Newark mayor and A.F.L. labor executive, as their successor to retiring Democratic Governor Charles Edison.

58,723 Canadians In Search of Homes

OTTAWA (CP)—Homes are needed by 58,723 persons who have registered with Prices Board Housing Registries, and Victoria, Vancouver, Ottawa, Montreal and Halifax are "dangerously overcrowded," the board said today in a review.

Up to Aug. 31 the registries had found accommodation for 39,309 persons.

"In spite of the serious congestion existing in (housing) deficiency areas, numbers of families of servicemen and civilian workers are continuing to move into these areas," said the board. "All unnecessary moving out of families should stop."

LUX cuts down runs over 50%!

● A famous test laboratory recently discovered something you should know about stockings!

Some stockings were rubbed with cake soap, some washed with new, improved Lux. Then they were pulled and strained as in everyday wear. These tests proved that washing with Lux cut down runs over 50% in rayon stockings. Similar results with cotton stockings, too!

Dipping in Lux saves stocking elasticity—that's why threads won't pop into runs so easily. Join the Lux Daily Dippers and save your precious stockings, too. Dip them in Lux every night. Dry rayons thoroughly.

THRIFT TIPS—

WASHING... Dip after each wearing. Turn inside out—squeeze lukewarm, rich Lux suds through hose. Don't use hot water—it may fade the colour. Don't rub with cake soap—holes may appear.

RINSING... Rinse thoroughly in lukewarm water. Do not wring or twist. Roll in Turkish towel to remove excess moisture. Unroll immediately. Shake out folds and wrinkles.

DRYING... Dry indoors. Hang over smooth rod—never on radiator. Dry rayon stockings thoroughly.

CONSERVATION HINTS... Buy stockings that are large enough and the right length. Get at least two pairs of same colour and wear alternately. In washing, remove finger rings that may catch threads. Keep seams straight when wearing.

TONIGHT Dip your stockings in NEW IMPROVED... LUX

The mildest, safest LUX ever made! New, bigger package, more for your money! And remember, the large size is an even better buy!

Sponsored by the National Council for Canadian-Soviet Friendship, of which Sir Ellisworth Flavelle of Toronto is chairman, the congress will wind up its meetings Sunday evening, Nov. 14, with a special thanksgiving service at Maple Leaf Gardens.

Among special speakers will be Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Arctic explorer.

Sir Ellisworth said the aim is to serve as a fact-finding forum. "Through it authentic information will be made available to the Canadian public on developments in Soviet science, medicine, agriculture, education, labor and the arts. Information concerning Canadian achievements in similar fields will be made available to the people in the Soviet Union. The deeper mutual understanding such an exchange of knowledge will make possible should contribute not only to our joint prosecution of the war, but also to a just and permanent peace."

Larry Allen Not Found By Troops in Italy

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS (AP)—Allied armies in Italy have found no trace of Larry Allen, Associated Press correspondent captured at Tobruk by the Italians Sept. 13, 1942, who was reported Sunday night to have arrived in southern Italy after escaping from a German prison camp.

All indications are that the report was incorrect. A person in Naples who saw Allen a month ago said he believed the war correspondent had been moved by the Nazis to a camp in southern France.

3 Canadian Fliers 15 Hours in Dinghy

WITH THE R.C.A.F. SOMEWHERE IN TUNISIA (CP)—The crew of five, including three Canadians, crouched in a rubber dinghy that tossed on the choppy sea. Fifteen hours earlier they had plunged into the Mediterranean in a Wellington bomber that had fires in both engines.

Forced to "hit the deck" while winging towards a target in Italy, the crewmen, including Ft. Lt. Gerald Leddy of Calgary, PO. William McGregor of Port Arthur, Ont. and WO. Joseph Keirner of Edmonton, extricated themselves when the bomber rose to the surface momentarily.

Soaked and chilled, the lads ate emergency rations and "ribbed" each other to keep their spirits up. For instance, McGregor was accused of getting out of the bomber and into the dinghy, which was several yards away, so fast that he didn't get wet. McGregor's main concern, he told the crew, was that the boys back at the squadron might decide he was missing and would drink two bottles of spirits he had hidden in his tent.

They eventually were picked up by a destroyer which sighted them after they fired their last flare.

Air Arm for R.C.N.

TORONTO (CP)—Instructor Commander K. G. B. Ketchum of the Royal Canadian Navy College at Royal Roads, near Victoria, B.C., said Monday "there is good reason to suppose that in the near future, there will be a fleet air arm of the Royal Canadian Navy."

He was addressing a meeting of the Navy League of Canada here. Interviewed afterward, he declined to amplify his statement, adding that an announcement might be expected from officials at Ottawa soon.

Hamilton Paratrooper Had Record Fall

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—Mr. and Mrs. Eric Robson of nearby Burlington believe a recent story in the British Medical Journal about a student paratrooper who survived a 700-foot fall when his parachute failed to open during overseas training operations was about their son, Pte. William Robson.

The British Medical Journal said the student's parachute failed to open when the soldier jumped and he plummeted to earth at 50 miles an hour, landing on his foot, thus preventing the shock from traveling up his spine to his skull.

In a letter to his mother Pte. Robson said he broke both feet, suffered a compound fracture of the left leg, and a broken back.

Enemy Squadron Flees On Approach Of American Ships

By VERN HAUGLAND SOUTH PACIFIC ALLIED HEADQUARTERS (AP)—U.S. Marines landed on the Japanese stronghold of Bougainville Monday while naval forces bombarded Buka and Shortland islands, at either tip of Bougainville, and routed a Japanese naval force without firing a shot.

An enemy squadron of four light cruisers, accompanied by five or six destroyers, headed toward Bougainville Island, but steamed away when a U.S. force set out to meet them.

"We hope Japanese naval forces will come down and give us a chance at them," said a spokesman for Admiral William F. Halsey in predicting strong opposition on Bougainville, "last major enemy holding in the Solomons."

Only slight resistance was encountered by the marines, who by-passed the enemy's stronghold of Buin to land on Empress Augusta Bay under naval and air bombardment. Admiral Halsey's spokesman described the operation as successful. Occupation of Choiseul and Treasury islands, both near Buin on the southeast tip of Bougainville, by New Zealand and U.S. troops, was reported progressing satisfactorily.

The Bougainville operation started shortly after midnight with a half-hour bombardment of the Buka airfield, between Bougainville and a Japanese-held Rabaul, by a cruiser force. The shelling was apparently successful in its purpose of limiting the amount of aerial pressure the enemy could bring against the landing force.

Just before dawn the navy shelled Empress Augusta Bay for 45 minutes, while another fleet unit bombarded the bivouac area in the Shortland Islands.

The Solomons air arm bombed and strafed airbases throughout the Bougainville area—Kahili, Kara, Ballale and Buka—and ground forces at Empress Augusta Bay.

Woman Won't Dye Hair Second Time

CHICAGO (AP)—Mrs. Viola Fanta dyed her black hair red—just to please her husband—but she refused to dye her dyed red hair blonde, her attorney told Superior Judge Joseph Sabath Monday at a hearing on her suit for separate maintenance.

Mrs. Fanta was a natural brunette when she was married in 1939, but her husband, Peter, preferred red hair, her counsel said. Eager to please, he told Judge Sabath, Mrs. Fanta dyed her hair red, and "everything was fine again. Then, it turned out, Fanta thought blonde hair was nicest, but Mrs. Fanta demurred and refused to dye her hair blonde."

The court appointed a special commissioner to determine the amount of maintenance Fanta should pay.

4-Power Pact Kills Isolation; Terms Broadcast In 26 Languages

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Cordell Hull views the achievements of the Moscow conference, which established a broad basis for postwar political and economic co-operation, as rendering impossible any isolationism on the part of the United States, Great Britain and the Soviet Union.

Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who, it was understood, led the discussion of wartime questions while Hull advocated the postwar security plan, also met correspondents but, cautiously, would not estimate the value of the conference in detail. It was clear, however, he considered it a notable success.

Hull said he was gratified that Soviet leaders, turning away from isolationism, had accepted what he described as a policy of moderate international co-operation.

Recalling the prewar aloofness of United States, he expressed the belief that people everywhere now were convinced of the necessity for practical international co-operation to avert another war.

This co-operation, he said, would take concrete form in London in a few weeks when the new European advisory commission created by the conference assembles to continue the work of the Moscow meeting. This body, composed of high permanent officials from the foreign office of each of the three major powers, will take up matters pertaining to winning the war, settling the peace and seeing the peace is kept after victory.

Safe, But Prisoner

Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Phillips, 1618 Wilmot Place, have been notified by Ottawa, that their son, Sqn. Ldr. Arnold P. Phillips, R.A.F., who was reported missing while on active air operations Aug. 23, is a prisoner of war in Germany.

The pilot's wife, Mrs. Aileen Phillips, who resides with her two young children in Banff, Alta., recently received a postcard from her husband saying he was safe and well in a German prison camp.

Sqn. Ldr. Phillips, who reached his 28th birthday last May, was born in North Wales, coming to Victoria as a boy with his parents from Japan. He received his education at St. Aidan's School, Oak Bay High School, Shawinigan Lake School and University School.

He joined the R.A.F. six and a half years ago, returned to Canada two years ago last January as flying instructor and returned to England last March.

Since that time he has been in most of the big raids over Axis territory.

Victory And Enduring Peace

FREEDOM-LOVING PEOPLES EVERYwhere are rejoicing over the brilliantly successful results of the Moscow conference.
Their spirits experienced a considerable lift
as soon as it became known that Mr. Eden, Mr. Hull and Mr. Molotov had arranged to meet and discuss the problems uppermost in the minds of all—how to "Speed the Victory" and how to reshape a future that will never again be plagued by wholesale human slaughter and the destruction of priceless material treasure.

The detailed announcement published yesterday is manifestly a charter of promise that ought to set at rest at least some of the fears to which enemy publicists have devoted so much verbal energy in recent weeks. Not that the conferees are under any illusion as to the implications of the numerous imponderables of this global conflict. But in view of the harmony and spirit of co-operation and collaboration which evidently permeated the deliberations in the Russian capital, there will be no disposition anywhere to dilute this outstanding Allied achievement with further doubts.

Nothing we could say here would clothe with any special emphasis the straightforward terminology employed to convey to the world the precise meaning of the new charter. The dragon of suspicion and mistrust—which drew its fire and brimstone from the turbulent minds of enemy propa-gandists—has received its deathblow. The pledges to which the three men of good will attached their signatures, and on which their respective governments based the joint declaration, mean that military strategy and postwar collaboration need no longer worry the dogmatists. Remote control by armchair experts may be harmless in the main; but their hypotheses occasionally confuse the public mind and not infrequently create a species of melancholia upon which defeatism thrives. Such cheers only the enemy.

Special attention naturally will be attracted by the statement in the official declaration that military experts discussed "definite operations" already decided upon and now being prepared "to create a basis for the closest military co-operation in the future between the three countries," that those nations at war with "a common enemy" will act together in all matters relating to the surrender and disarmament of that enemy, and that they will take all measures deemed essential to provide against any violation of the terms imposed upon him. Russia and Japan, of course, are still on a peaceful footing, while the Soviet Union is not involved with Bulgaria, or the United States with Finland.

That part of the charter which pledges
the "big three" and China to follow the defeat of their enemies by the establishment of "a general international organization" for the maintenance of peace and security is of paramount concern to the world as a whole. And the fact that the conferees at Moscow reduced this basic undertaking to understandable language, even though in general terms, should help to lift postwar collaboration out of the political atmosphere in the United States. The isolationists, repentant since Pearl Harbor, or those still skeptical about the intentions of other members of the United Nations coalition, will be expected to close ranks. The Allied world from now on will bank on the practical implementation of the Moscow pledges. For the victory and the quality of the peace to follow depend upon mutual trust and mutual good will.

Financial Trickery

GERMANY IS BOASTING THAT SHE IS conducting her war finances on sounder lines than during the first Great War. She pretends that 50 per cent of her war expenditure is covered by taxes and similar revenues, whereas the corresponding figure during the last war was only 13 per cent.
This statement is meant to prove that the mistakes which laid the foundation for the inflation of German currency from 1919-1923 are not being repeated in the present war. And it leads the Financial Post to ask what the facts are.

In the financial year 1942-3 Germany's total central government expenditure amounted to 110 billion marks. This revenue was composed of 50 billion marks ordinary and 60 billion marks extraordinary receipts.
Normally, the ordinary receipts mainly include taxes. Hence the German conclusion that nearly 50 per cent of the pyramid of their present war finances is based on taxation.
In fact, Germany has reported to a trick.
Tax returns do not amount to more than 35 billion marks. This reduces the ratio of taxation to only 30 per cent of the revenues.
In order to raise the ratio to the level of nearly 50 per cent, the charges imposed on the occupied countries have been added to the ordinary revenues. These charges, we are told, amount to 12-13 billion marks a year. In other words, the foreign taxpayer was forced to take over a large proportion of German war expenditure. His compulsory contribution to the Nazi war budget is a significant factor in the German war finances. The Post further explains:

"This is not the whole story. As pointed out, Germany covers 60 billion marks of her war expenditure by contracting credits. An examination of this method of financing the war discloses that seven billion marks of the credits have been raised in German-controlled countries by selling Reich bonds. Thus, by adding up the occupation charges of 12-13 billion marks and the sale of Reich bonds in value of seven billion marks on foreign markets, it is seen that the German authorities were forced to take over nearly one-fifth of the government expenditure of the Germans."

It should also be noted that in 1941 and 1942 Germany had squeezed out about 25 billion marks in occupation charges from the occupied countries, and some 28 billion marks from the whole of Europe. In the final analysis, therefore, Germany is paying for her war effort by accumulating clearing debts and forcing taxpayers in occupied lands to buy Reich bonds, a form of trickery not even entitled to the term of financial "wizardry."

Punctured Propaganda

NOW THAT THE WHOLE WORLD knows how the four great Allied powers propose to drive in harmony for victory, and prepare the way for intimate and practical collaboration to make the peace an enduring one, even the resourceful and highly-imaginative Herr Doktor Goebbels may be compelled to drop his attempts to sow discord among the nations whose representatives have appended their signatures to one of the most memorable documents of modern times. For many months, regardless of basic facts easily comprehended by mortals of average intelligence, the Nazi propaganda factory in Berlin has continued to manufacture the most fantastic yarns.
Nobody will blame the German oligarchy for trying to split the United Nations. To have driven a wedge between Britain and Russia, for example, would have been a major achievement—worth, perhaps, many divisions and an effective counter-irritant to the Nazi military debacle on the Dnieper.
But yesterday's pronouncement provided an effective rejoinder to all enemy attempts to confuse the peoples of the anti-totalitarian coalition.

In the early days of the war, not omitting the doubts created in the minds of many European statesmen by the Goebbelsian propaganda strategy in the months immediately preceding the invasion of Poland, it will have to be admitted that Nazi publicity had a damaging effect on several governments—some of whose members were not quite convinced of the impossibility of doing business with Hitler. Mr. Churchill's appeal to the neutral states when the conflict was in its so-called "phony" stage fell on deaf ears.
In other words, it was not until April 9, 1940, that the German plan for a "new order" became clear, first to Denmark and Norway—and, a month later, to Luxembourg, Belgium and Holland. However, recent fulminations from Berlin's propaganda factory neither prevented the Moscow tripartite conference from convening nor hampered its arrival at conclusions and decisions which spell the doom of totalitarianism and all its tyrannical works.

Chinese Immigration

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
at Washington recently voted to supplant the Chinese exclusion acts with a quota system similar to that applied to immigrants of other nationalities, and to permit Chinese to become naturalized American citizens.
Early consideration of the Senate is expected.
President Roosevelt said that passage of the bill "will correct a historic mistake and extension of the privileges of citizenship will operate as another meaningful display of friendship for a gallant ally."

Action along these lines by the United States will probably force the issue of exclusion repeal on Canada. Our curbs on Chinese immigration date back to 1884 when a Royal Commission recommended a head tax of $10 on Chinese immigrants who were being brought into British Columbia chiefly to work in coal mines and on the railroads.
The recommendation led to legislation in 1885 imposing a $50 head tax. This was not deemed effective and after another Royal Commission had reported, was increased in 1901 to $100. In 1904 the head tax was increased to $500. The influx, however, continued. In 1881 there were 4,363 Chinese in Canada, chiefly in British Columbia. By 1901 it was up to 39,587. This led to measures to effect further exclusion. By the Immigration Act of 1923, the only Chinese eligible to enter Canada were members of the diplomatic corps, consuls or other government representatives, children born in Canada who had gone to China for education or other purposes, merchants, and students coming to attend Canadian universities. As a result of the 1923 act, in the 10 years preceding 1939, only five Chinese immigrants entered Canada—as compared with 1,143 Japanese.

The Chinese have been quietly asking that, as their country is one of our allies in the war, discrimination against them be removed and that immigration of their nationals into Canada be placed on an equal basis with that of other nations. Under the measure now being considered at Washington, the quota of Chinese eligible to enter the United States would be 105 a year. This is an insignificant number and it would be smaller on a proportionate basis for Canada.

The money we take out of the sock and put into Victory Bonds will help hurry the knockout sock the enemy is going to get.

Ottawa Citizen thinks perhaps the CBC board of governors should begin its future deliberations on the assumption that Sir Thomas Beecham was right and that Canadian broadcasting is "the worst in the world." It would be a good starting point for much-needed improvement.

CHINESE EXCLUSION REPEAL IN U.S.

In the following article, Miller Freeman, Seattle publisher, who for many years has sounded warnings against the menace of Japan, tells why he supports repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act in U.S. His article, presenting one view, is of interest here because Canada also must face the question of Chinese exclusion.)

By MILLER FREEMAN

I AM FOR repeal of the laws excluding Chinese immigration into the United States and for placing China on the quota along with other nations.

Chinese exclusion legislation was passed in 1882 because of the importation of large numbers of Chinese laborers by the builders of railroads and other employers, with rates of labor against which American labor could not compete. If it had not been stopped they would have inundated the west.

Soon after passage of the Chinese Exclusion Act the flood of Japanese immigrants caused a demand for exclusion of Japanese.

Theodore Roosevelt, in 1907, negotiated the so-called "Gentlemen's Agreement" with Japan.

At the time of concluding this agreement
I thought it a very happy solution of the problem.

It was not until 1919 that my attention was called to the increasing number of Japanese on the Pacific coast. On examining the U.S. immigration figures I found that 11,000 Japanese had been admitted into the United States that year.

In the ensuing three years I wrote a series of articles charging that the Japanese government had violated the Gentlemen's Agreement.

I asked the House Immigration committee to visit the Pacific coast and make a thorough investigation of the problem, which it did in 1920.

IN 1923 I PARTICIPATED in the conference in San Francisco attended by Congressman Albert Johnson, then chairman of the House Immigration committee, at which were present representatives of Grange, Labor and Veterans' organizations.
The question of granting the quota to Asiaties was debated, but when it was shown that Japan, under the Gentlemen's Agreement, had, in the intervening years, put 100,000 more of her nationals into this country, it was decided to hold for absolute exclusion.

It is doubtful if the bill for absolute exclusion would have been approved by Congress in 1924 but for the fact that the Japanese ambassador wrote a letter to the Secretary of State threatening that very grave consequences would result if it were passed. When the letter was read in Congress, it resulted in the bill being immediately called up and passed overwhelmingly.

The widespread conviction exists throughout this country, by reason of skillful Japanese propaganda, that the 1924 Exclusion Act was discriminatory against Japan. It is time this myth was exploded. That act embraced all Asiatics, of which the Japanese were but one-seventh of the total.

BY REPEAL OF the Chinese Exclusion Act, under the present immigration law,
the Chinese would be allowed only 105 immigrants to enter this country annually.

We should recognize the heroic accomplishments of the Chinese people as a member of the United Nations in the struggle against totalitarianism. The United States has already taken a great step by relinquishing extraterritorial jurisdiction in China.

There is no danger that China will follow the example of Japan and attempt to force large numbers of her people on this country.

The day of subjugation and exploitation of defenceless millions throughout the world is about over.

Unlike Japan, China has never attempted to interfere herself in the affairs of this country.

We should extend our utmost assistance in building China into a strong nation, establishing her on a sound economic basis.
If we could lend a hand toward raising her standard of living it would benefit all mankind.

HOW THE CIVIL SERVICE GROWS

From Financial Post
Herewith some figures on the growth of the federal civil service with comparable figures for the United States.

Canada now has one federal government employee for every 88 of our population, excluding the armed forces. The comparable

Including municipal, provincial and federal civil servants, the Financial Post estimates one civil servant for about every 30 of our civilian population. For the U.S. an estimate gives a similar figure of 25.

In this war, Canada has one civilian employee of the federal government for every 3.7 in the armed services. (U.S. one to 2.5.)

In the last war, Canada had one civilian federal employee for each 11.6 in the armed services. (U.S. one to five.)

In 1920 Canada had 47,133 federal civil servants. U.S. had over 900,000.

In March, 1943, Canada had 122,737; U.S. had over 3,000,000.

Victoria's Lights Come On Again

Darkened by war for almost a year, the lights came on all over Vancouver Island Monday night when the dimout was suspended. Above is Yates Street from Douglas, as it shone in its pre-dimout brilliance.

Magic of Menuhin Enchants Victoria

Magnificent performance at the Royal Victoria Theatre last night must have convinced the most skeptical that Yehudi Menu-hin will go down in history not as a child prodigy, which he undoubtedly was, but first and foremost as a mature and brilliant violinist. His fame will not need to rest on his appearance as a curly-haired youngster of six or seven astounding critics with vir-tuous tricks.

Menuhin's playing was marvelous. But then Victoria knew it would be; for years now he has ranked close to the top of the tree with Heifetz and Kreisler. Surprise of the evening was Adolph Baller, pianist, who contributed a great deal to the interpretation of the music by his masterly playing.

There is no room for criticism
in a performance of this calibre.
Only perhaps to point out the modern trend in the program, which Menuhin played with fire and crystal-brilliance in some passages, and with an enchanted moodiness in others. Flying staccato, pizzicato, and every technique of the bow was dis-

CONSIDERATION FOR THE TRUCKERS

From Financial Post
A super-squeeze for the Canadian trucking industry has resulted from the W.P.T.B. ceiling on rates and higher operating costs.

The price ceiling, of course, squeezes everybody. It is intended to hurt because a squeeze that didn't hurt would poorly serve the anti-inflationary war we must win on the home front.

Results of a recent survey in the trucking industry published in the Financial Post (July 24, page 7) suggest that truckers have a pretty good case for asking some relief on rates. A comparison of the first four months of 1942 over the same period of 1940 shows that tire and tire repair costs are up 340 per cent; truck repairs up 154 per cent; wages up 102 per cent; fuel up 96 per cent.
Having to use old equipment requires constant patching and tinkering with inevitable increase in operating costs.

The financial condition of trucking firms, as presented in this survey, certainly made it plain that the life-blood is being sucked out of them.

The trucking industry is a vital component of Canada's wartime production line. Operations at scores of Canadian plants depend on a constant stream of trucks feeding in raw materials at one end; another stream of trucks removing processed materials at the other. Behind the milk, meat and other foods on tens of thousands of Canadian dinner tables is the trucking industry.

The trucking industry has established itself as a vital component of our national system of communications.

Every exception to the price ceiling, every easing of the price squeeze must have the closest scrutiny, the grimmest analysis.

But unalterable devotion to a fixed price can be just as serious for the war effort and for Canada as reckless unconcern for price control as a whole.

And certain it is that bleeding
the trucking industry into weakness or virtual disappearance would not help the war effort.

"WE ARE READY"

From La Presse, Montreal
"We are ready," declares Gen.
McNaughton. The long and minute training which the Canadian soldiers have undergone for four years, here and overseas, has enabled them effectively to accomplish the multitudinous and often very difficult missions which modern warfare imposes.
Dieppe and the victorious Sicilian expedition have made possible the last verifications.
We may be confident that the Canadian Expeditionary Force is ready to meet its responsibilities.

played, yet the real feeling of the music was never lost.
The Georges Enesco Sonata
No. 3 in A Minor, one of Menuhin's favorites, is an extraordinary work, having strange tonality, and passages in high harmonies that have an amazingly eerie quality, especially when muted.

Playing on the Stradivarius
he has had since he was 12, Menuhin opened his well-chosen program with a lovely lyrical Mozart Sonata in A Major, in which the close dove-tailing of the two artists was immediately apparent.

From the first note of the violin following the short piano introduction of the Vieuxtemps Concerto in D Minor, one haunting melody followed another, broken with lovely cadences and a bold pizzicato passage. The second movement bristled with technical difficulties which Menu-hin soared over with all the poise of a sure technique, leading into a race-ending with the violin running like the wind hand in hand with the piano melody.

Among his smaller selections,
Kreutzer's Caprice Viennois,
"Molly on the Shore" and "Caprice Basque" by Saint-Saens, and de Falla's "Vide Breve" rounded out the program. Assisting the artists was Jas. Burchett, Victoria violinist.—IRIS SMALL-WOOD.

It is certainly anxious to make good. Numerous instances are to be found in our history that bear witness to the remarkable facility with which Canadians adapt themselves to peacetime demands in the economic field, in commercial enterprises and in general in everything that touches on the utilization of the resources of the country and the increase of the national revenue.

This natural disposition, certainly a precious one, is apparent today in our war effort. We had everything to learn about the arts of war, being a peaceful people, busy with our internal affairs. But, under the stimulus of necessity, we have developed military learning on a vast scale in common with our Allies. So that, to repeat Gen. McNaughton's phrase, "We are ready."

As a result of photo reconnaissance, maps have been prepared for the second front. We did part of the work. The British did most of it. These maps will be issued to the first troops ashore.—Col. James Goodwin Hall, back from Britain.

Jubilee Crowding Delays Plans For Canteen

Installation of the proposed hospital canteen at Jubilee Hospital will be held in abeyance, owing to the heavy demands being made on all available space, Mrs. Norman Cook, canteen convener, told members of the Junior Women's Auxiliary to Jubilee Hospital at a meeting Monday afternoon.

Annual Dolls' Bazaar will open at 2, Dec. 1, in the Nurses' Home and Miss Marianne Fraser requested all members to turn in their dressed dolls not later than a week before the bazaar. Mrs. P. F. Howden asked for slightly-damaged toys which could be repaired. Plans were made to hold the Children's Christmas Party Dec. 30, with Mrs. A. B. Nash, Mrs. Leslie Aylard, Mrs. J. U. Copeman, Mrs. Arthur Ross and Mrs. E. S. Tait in charge of arrangements.

An invitation for the Junior W.A. to affiliate with the B.C. Hospital Association was accepted. Mrs. H. L. Robertson reported that Thursday morning and Tuesday afternoon volunteer workers completed 10,200 articles, including 850 dozen dressings, during October. Mrs. Clifford Collison was convener. Mrs. Copeman told the meeting of the Diet Committee work and spoke of oatmeal, malted milk, fruit and medicines distributed during the month. Mrs. Howden told of the home and hospital visits made and Mrs. D. H. Frith, Thrift Shop convener, reported the total of $107 raised during October. Volunteer workers for the shop on Wednesdays and Saturdays were requested. Mrs. D. Campbell, vocation convener, also gave a report.

New members welcomed to the auxiliary were: Mrs. S. H. Allan, Mrs. A. H. Cox, Mrs. J. P. McNeill, Mrs. W. E. Mitchell, Mrs. C. E. White and Miss Peggy Sills.

Junior W.A. decided to distribute Christmas cheer to the annex and some wards this year and to provide Christmas trees for those in the active service ward. Contributing to the effort will be: Mrs. J. Dick, Mrs. Howden, Mrs. A. C. Fletcher, Mrs. H. A. Maclean and Mrs. W. J. R. Peers. All members were asked to be at the hospital Dec. 29 to help wrap parcels and distribute gifts. Mrs. R. A. Wootton presided.

"I'll tell you one thing," says Squadron Leader Charles Stuart Dowie, D.F.C., Bar—

"We can't win this war with an even balance of power—it must be a decisive superiority. The more support, the shorter the war!"

"The better we're backed up by the folks back home—the better we fight!"

SETTING THE PACE FOR VICTORY

Squadron Leader DOWIE knows what he's talking about! Fifty flights over enemy territory taught him. He knows you can't stop at being just as good as the other man—you've got to be better and have more of everything!

He knows the Jerries are tough! Once they nearly got him when he visited Hamburg in a death-dealing Wellington! It was a close call—but those Canadians did what they set out to do... released a surprise packet of bursting bombs right where it hurt Jerry most—on one of his precious war factories.

Then they streaked for home... if you can call it streaking... peppered with flak—the bomb doors hanging open... flaps sagging... and the hydraulic system knocked out! You lose a lot of height quick in a jam like that—and bucking a strong west wind doesn't help much! But they made it—safely—with less than ten minutes' gas to spare. That's war as they know it... split-second decisions... nerves tensed to trigger quickness... brains alert to death and danger.

That's their job—tackled in the true Canadian spirit! Tackled by boys from prairie farms... from northern bushlands... from peaceful Canadian seacoasts... from little towns that have borne and bred men with the spirit of Squadron Leader Dowie.

They're fighting this war—and they know what's needed! When they ask for more planes, more equipment, more guns—there's only one answer... "more of everything on its way!"

We can do it—we're Canadians too! It means more and more work... greater self-denial... MORE VICTORY BONDS!

Show these boys we're in there fighting with them... they're putting everything they've got into this war... put everything you've got into VICTORY BONDS.

For it's VICTORY BONDS that will deliver the goods... it's VICTORY BONDS that will shorten the war.

Poppy Day Saturday Aids War Veterans

Men of two world wars will be remembered this Saturday when the annual Poppy Day, sponsored by the Victoria Remembrance Day Committee, will be held to raise funds for emergency needs of veterans.

"Poppy Day belongs to the veterans and was designated as the day in the year to be devoted to the collection of funds to supply these heroes of the Empire with vital emergency help. No government department can or does move fast enough to help a veteran over an emergency—the Poppy Day Fund takes over immediately and help is given, a local official said today.

"When you hear this call for help from the Poppy Fund, remember your debt to the men who fought in 1914-18 and the men who have been facing death in your service since 1939. Remember Passchendaele, 'Dieppe and Sicily.'"

F. W. Coulter is campaign manager of the Victoria Remembrance Day committee, with an office at 604 Broughton Street. Canvassers have been out two weeks, taking orders for wreaths and donations and poppies will be sold on Victoria streets this Saturday. Anyone wishing to help with the selling of the poppies is asked to get in touch with the Remembrance Day committee.

Lieut-Governor W. C. Woodward has issued the following declaration on Poppy Day:

"This year Poppy Day will be observed on Saturday, Nov. 6, and should, I feel, be recognized as one of the outstanding and essential voluntary contributions to the war effort.

"The Victoria Poppy Fund Committee, organized and incorporated under the Societies Act of British Columbia, has for its motto—'Service-Sacrifice'—and functions under the distinguished patronage of His Majesty the King and the senior officers of the Crown of Canada. It is administered by citizens of unimpeachable integrity; its affiliates embrace social and veteran organizations of local and Dominion repute.

"Poppy Day! Remembrance Day! 'Service-Sacrifice,' are, to me, synonymous.

"Poppy Day presents to us the opportunity of expressing our appreciation to those who have suffered and are suffering in the greatest of all fights for preservation of the life and habits of free men, by contributing to the relief of that suffering, in the spirit of service and sacrifice.

"Remembrance Day grants to us the opportunity of paying humble and reverential tribute to the memory of those who gave supreme service and sacrifice.

"Service and Sacrifice given by so many, culminating in the supreme effort or permanent physical capacity, is a debt which can only be liquidated by appreciative and tangible effort. Poppy Day should, therefore, be the anniversary of our determination to discharge that debt.

"So to every citizen of British Columbia I make this earnest appeal—celebrate the anniversary of Poppy Day by dedicating your service to the National War effort, resolved that your contribution to the poppy fund shall, if necessary, be your sacrifice.

"Remember that it is only through whole-hearted co-operation and generous support that the poppy fund committee can carry on its vital emergency service, and that the urgency of this service must increase with the now constantly expanding activities of the war zones.

"Today, veterans, both old and young, whose service and sacrifice have assisted in freeing this great Dominion from the ravages of total war, need your help. And that need is their challenge to you to accept as your own motto of the poppy fund committee—'Service-Sacrifice.'"

Major gains in values are shown in city land values for October, figures released by Ald. T. W. Hawkins, lands committee chairman, disclosed today.

During October, 10 properties sold for $9,325, against 17 for $4,900 in the corresponding month last year. Last month's figures raised to 257 parcels with a total sales price of $75,393, the deals handled by the department to date. During the first 10 months of 1942, 265 properties sold for $56,085.

Cash receipts last month amounted to $21,132, bringing the cumulative total for the year to date to $131,415. In October, 1942, receipts were $11,609, and the 10 months' total $105,841.

Enhanced Values In Property Sales

Belief that the end of the orange and grapefruit famine was within sight was expressed by one Yates Street wholesaler today, when he announced that a carload of oranges would arrive this week and a small shipment of grapefruit might arrive.

"We have been receiving one carload of oranges a week throughout October and the oranges are distributed to regular users on a quota based on their ordinary consumption. One carload a week is less than one quarter the demand for Victoria," he said.

Next week there will be no oranges coming in, but the new crop of California oranges is expected to start moving the end of this month. They will not, however, be in plentiful supply until January.

"We may get a small shipment of grapefruit this week and, if so, it will be the beginning of the new crop and grapefruit should arrive fairly regularly after that," he said.

There have been no grapefruit for the past six weeks.

Apples are in short supply this week, with Victoria allotted only one carload, but three carloads are expected next week, the wholesaler said.

Oranges, Grapefruit To Move By Nov. 30

Archibald McKinty, contractor, has been awarded the contract and has commenced work on a four-room school to be erected on the Lamson Street School grounds for Wartime Housing Ltd.

P. Leonard James, supervising architect, states that the overall cost will be approximately $25,000.

The building will be of frame construction on a concrete foundation and will have an exterior finish of asbestos shingles. It will be a one-story structure with basement.

The new school is designed to accommodate additional students due to the influx of war workers in the Esquimalt district, where new housing accommodation has been provided under the Wartime Housing scheme.

Building New School On Lamson Street

When rheumatic pains have you your one thought is of relief. If it can be quick relief, so much the better. And if it can be permanent relief, better still. Well, read what Mrs. Moore has to say—

"About 12 months ago I was taken with rheumatic pains and was so ill I was getting deformed. For 10 months I tried everything, and was given up as a bad job. For days at a time, I could not get my hands up to my head. Then I thought of Kruschen Salts. Wonder of wonder! In six weeks' time I was able to do my own housework, and use to my kiddies, and there are no signs of the rheumatic pains returning." (Mrs. Moore.

Rheumatic pains, like gout and lumbago, can have their origin in intestinal stasis (delay)—a condition of which the sufferer is seldom aware. It means the unexpected accumulation of waste matter and the consequent formation of excess uric acid.

Kruschen stimulates the organs of elimination that the uric acid-forming waste material is regularly and effectively expelled. Kruschen helps to keep your inside clean and normal. Then, mischievous uric acid doesn't get the chance to accumulate again. Ask your druggist for Kruschen Salts: 25c and 75c.

Crowds Queue Up for Liquor Coupons

All day Saturday crowds lined up both outside and inside the liquor coupon store at 909 Government Street. Today another queue began forming by 9.30 a.m. for a 10 a.m. opening. This month the coupon store will be open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. The above picture was taken Saturday afternoon. The women clerks, working in two shifts are busy every minute inspecting national registration certificates and liquor permits and issuing the new coupons, without which no liquor may be bought this month next.

New Maternity Wing For Jubilee Hospital

Royal Jubilee Hospital hopes to start on a new maternity wing of 75 beds as soon as labor and supplies can be obtained.

A delegation from the hospital has been promised by Premier John Hart that the government will seriously consider a financial grant.

The new wing is expected to cost $150,000 and will be in a separate building, but close to the main hospital.

Those who asked Premier Hart and the government for financial assistance were Judge H. H. Shandley, E. W. McMullen, F. E. Winslow, Edwin Tomlin and Dr. T. W. Walker, medical superintendent of the hospital.

The hospital is now handling more than 100 maternity cases each month and cannot continue to do this adequately with present accommodation, Premier Hart was told.

Women Save Cadets Domestic Chores

Cadets at Royal Roads Naval Training Centre have been relieved of the jobs of cooking, cleaning and serving by the arrival within the past 10 days of 50 ratings of the W.R.C.N.S.

Sub-Lt. Sally Mitchell, W.R.C.N.S., is in charge of the Wrens, and they are quartered on the top floor of the historic old castle.

The Wrens have also replaced the quartermasters and taken over the switchboard. Motor transport drivers and writers are expected shortly.

Serving as a recreation room and canteen for the girls is the ballroom of the castle.

Forestry Corps Lumber On Estates

Lumbering over vast forests belonging to Sir Charles Ross of Ross Rifle fame, the Duke of Portland and the Andrew Carnegie estates was described for members of the Gyró Club at their luncheon in Empress Hotel, Monday, by Major H. A. Morley of Victoria, who arrived home last week, after spending three years with the Canadian Forestry Corps in Scotland.

The kindness of the Scottish people, excellence of the army food, annoyance of the 2,000 Forestry Corps boys returned home at not getting in on a fighting show, the flight of Hess and the difference between Scottish and Canadian lumbering methods—all were discussed by the Major in his informal and chatty address.

Queried at the close of his address on the possible demobilization of the Forestry Corps men returned home, he said: "I don't think we're going to be demobilized; I think they're going to keep us in the army; I don't know, however." He expressed belief that the remainder of the corps still in Scotland would be sent home to Canada as the logging operations were mopped up.

"The lumber of Scotland is what we call brush here. There is Scotch Pine, Larch, some Spruce and hardwoods," said Major Morley, who went overseas with an advance party of 50 in October of 1940. When they cruise timber over there they don't do it the way we do here; they count every tree."

"The lumber is very short and branchy at the top. There is a bird over there that nips the central bud of the trees and they branch out in all shapes. Squirrels are a pest, as are rabbits, which get at newly-planted forests over there if they're not fenced in. Average diameter of a tree is one foot."

Major Morley said that Forestry Corps men have cut two-thirds of the available timber in Scotland. There were Australians, New Zealanders and Hondurans doing forestry work, he said.

Describing the Scottish method of cutting logs, the speaker told of numerous boys losing fingers through the operation, but said the people over there had been operating the mills the same way for more than 100 years, and were not going to change. Of the Forestry Corps men, he said, they were well housed, well fed and well entertained by the Scottish people. The men were a little older than most soldiers, he continued, but did not spend as much time in hospital as some of the younger men.

"Forests of Scotland have all been planted, and that's what we should do here," he added.

When queried on the famous flight of Hess, Major Morley said there were "so many stories." He spoke briefly of P. O. Joe Addison, R.C.A.F., who before transferring to the Air Force was in the Forestry Corps, and said that he was well liked by everyone. Addison was reported missing on his first flight after receiving his commission, Major Morley said.

F. W. Hawes, president, was in the chair and Hart Henderson introduced the speaker. Bill Hudson read letters from Harold S. Nunn, R.C.A.F., and Coxswain Douglas Stark of H.M.C.S. Arvida, thanking Gyros for gifts of cigarettes sent. Louis Glazan spoke briefly on junior hockey.

Mine Ruler Ickes, J. L. Lewis Confer As U.S. Takes Over

WASHINGTON (AP)—President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers conferred with U.S. Mine Boss Harold L. Ickes for 45 minutes this morning as U.S. flags were raised again over the nation's strike-paralyzed coal workings, signaling government seizure for the second time this year.

Neither Lewis nor Ickes—now authorized to enter into collective bargaining negotiations with the U.M.W.—would talk immediately about their parley.

In the far-flung fields, where the latest work stoppage had become nearly 100 per cent complete Monday, the situation marked time as the mine properties went through the transition to federal control.

President Roosevelt, in ordering the mine seizure Monday night, announced the pits would be opened by the government Wednesday morning and that "every miner will be expected to be at his post of duty" at that time.

Monday's general walkout affected an estimated 374,000 bituminous miners while anthracite workers were having a traditional All Saints' Day holiday. A survey in Pennsylvania today indicated only about 250 of that state's 80,000 hard coal diggers were back on duty.

PENALTIES IN BACKGROUND

The new seizure put the U.M.W. leadership in this position:

1. Order the strikers to dig coal again, immediately, or
2. Sit tight and face the possibility of severe penalties under the War Disputes Act, which outlines punishment for anyone who encourages a strike against a government-operated industry in wartime.

The U.M.W.'s 200-man policy committee was called to meet late today to make its choice. A back-to-work order was considered highly possible.

Burling Promoted

LONDON (CP)—F. O. George Burling, Canada's leading air ace with 30 German planes to his credit, has been promoted to flight lieutenant and placed in command of a flight in the R.C.A.F.'s famous Wolf fighter squadron.

Navy to Entertain Public Tomorrow

Royal Canadian Naval Barracks on Admiral's Road will be open for inspection tomorrow afternoon and an invitation is issued by Cmdr. R. P. Kingscote, commanding officer of H.M.C.S. Naden, to the general public to attend. Last year "open house" at Naden proved very popular and 5,000 persons inspected the barracks.

The gates will open at 1.30 Wednesday and the visitors will be taken to the torpedo school, seamanship school, gunnery school, drill shed and other buildings in the barracks.

There will be a display on the parade grounds with markers falling in at 2.45 and divisions and march past at 2.50. At 3.10 the famous R.C.N. band will play, followed by a physical and rifle training display. Tea will be served in the Drill Hall at 3.45 and at 4.15 there will be whaler and cutter races.

The display will end at 5.

Victoria to Exceed Collection Estimate

At the end of October, Victoria had collected $1,296,985 of its $1,438,427 levy, figures released today by the city assessor collector's department disclosed.

The amount paid in was $11,395 above the sum received at the corresponding date in 1942. Last year $1,285,590 had been collected at Oct. 31 with the levy $1,448,983. On the basis of returns during the last two months of last year, this year's collections will exceed the 91 per cent estimate fixed at the beginning of 1943 when the budget was struck.

Tuesday the second of a series of penalties will be imposed on accounts outstanding. It will raise to 2 per cent the extra charge. Another 1 per cent will be added Nov. 16 and a final 3 per cent will go into force Dec. 2.

13 Parcels Sold

Thirteen properties, 10 improved and three vacant, were sold Monday as annual city tax sale opened in the council chamber. They brought an upset price of $3,610.

Only 83 properties were listed, one of the smallest numbers in years, as the sale began. Before it has progressed much further several parcels will be withdrawn as former owners redeem them.

Never any Sign of RHEUMATIC PAINS Returning

When rheumatic pains have you your one thought is of relief. If it can be quick relief, so much the better. And if it can be permanent relief, better still. Well, read what Mrs. Moore has to say—

"About 12 months ago I was taken with rheumatic pains and was so ill I was getting deformed. For 10 months I tried everything, and was given up as a bad job. For days at a time, I could not get my hands up to my head. Then I thought of Kruschen Salts. Wonder of wonder! In six weeks' time I was able to do my own housework, and use to my kiddies, and there are no signs of the rheumatic pains returning." (Mrs. Moore.

OPENING games of the National Hockey League showed the Toronto and Detroit clubs as definite early season threats. The Leafs, after knocking over the New York Rangers Saturday night, jumped into Chicago Sunday evening and had no trouble spoiling the home debut of the Black Hawks. The world champion Red Wings experienced little difficulty beating Les Patrick's Rangers. Montreal Canadiens, favored by many as the club to whip in this season's major campaign, had their work cut out getting a draw with Boston Bruins.

Rangers look as if they may have another goalie problem to solve this year. The club had plenty of trouble in this department last season. Remember Steve (Sieve) Buzinski? This season the New York club has opened with Ken McAuley, a former prairie amateur between the pipes. In two games to date 13 shots have whizzed past the youngster. Listening to Saturday night's game on the air seemed it as if the Rangers' defence was pitifully weak. It may just be that McAuley was getting mighty little protection. The best of goalies can be made to look bad if the defence collapses in front of them.

Tonight the Rangers visit Montreal for their first engagement of the season with Canadiens. With two games in their belts the youngsters on the New York line-up should have settled down and lost any of that buck

Coast Baseball Loop Opens Again in April

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Directors of the Pacific Coast Baseball League in their annual winter meeting voted Monday to open the 1944 schedule April 9 and close Sept. 17. The dates are approximately the same as those of last season.

The league heads also voted to retain the Shughnessy playoff plan with the leading four clubs meeting in an elimination series after the regular season for a pool of $12,500.

Seattle Rainiers May Sign Former Prison Ball Star

SEATTLE (AP)—Seattle's Pacific Coast League baseball club was reported to be considering the advisability of offering a contract to an erstwhile Oregon State prison inmate.

Sports editor Royal Brougham said in his Post-Intelligencer column that the man involved is Luke Crosswhite, who was released after serving 12 years of a life sentence. He said business manager Bill Mulligan said, before leaving for the current league meeting at Oakland, that the Rainier management was considering offering Crosswhite a contract.

Owner Emil Sick said he had just returned to the city after several days' absence and knew nothing of the report.

Crosswhite chalked up a good record on the prison nine. Cary Mays, a guard at the Oregon institution, was quoted as saying: "This man has paid for his mistakes, and he is entitled to a break. He will stand the batters on their ears in this league if he gets a chance. Seattle told me they would sign him, and that's what I'm here for. We have another swell prospect, Bob Johnson, down there, and I'd like to see him get a chance, too."

McCance Captures Scoring Title In Western Football

WINNIPEG (CP)—Ches. McCance, flashy backfielder with Winnipeg R.C.A.F. Bombers, topped the Western Armed Services Rugby League scoring race during the regular season which ended here Saturday.

McCance, for many years a star end and backfielder with Winnipeg Blue Bombers, earned 29 points in six games with the Bombers. He had four touchdowns, and four converts.

LAC. Ken Charlton of Regina All-Services Riders, with 20 points, was runner-up to McCance.

He was followed in the point-getting parade by LAC. Johnny Lake of the Bombers who ran up 16 points. The 200-pound flying wing combined two touchdowns with six converts.

Others ranking high in the race were Lieut. Les Sherman, backfielder with Winnipeg United Services and Sgt. George Cullen, a backfielder with Regina All-Services Roughriders. Sherman had 13 points and Cullen 12.

EASTERN SCORING

TORONTO (CP)—Annis Stukas of Toronto Balmy Beach held a 10-point lead over his closest rival, Joe Krol of Hamilton Flying Wildcats, it was shown in the Ontario Rugby Football Union scoring statistics.

Big Stukas scored two field goals, a single and three converts in the last week to increase his total to 56 while Krol had a touchdown and one single, bringing his total to 46.

The husky quarterback for the Toronto East End club can thank his skill as a placement kicker for his lead. He kicked nine field goals from placement for 27 points, his four singles came on placements which missed the goalposts and all 10 points on converts were also scored from placements. He also scored three touchdowns.

The highest price ever paid for leasing federal oil land was at a recent sale in the Elk Basin field in Wyoming; $5,800 an acre for 137 acres and $5,600 for 80 acres; operators will pay regular royalties in addition.

Victorian Bags 200-Pound Deer

One of the largest deer ever killed on the island is seen in the above picture after being weighed in at the Sylvester U-Drive for entry in the annual trophy competition staged by that concern. It was a 206-pound buck shot by Stuart Smith, 3055 Earl Grey Street in the vicinity of Camp 6, Cowichan Lake. Smith is seen at the left, above, along with Ernie Prentiss. Bill Sylvester stated it was easily the largest deer ever entered in the competition since it was started several years ago. Several sportsmen who viewed the big buck all declared it was the biggest they had ever seen or heard of being shot on the island.

McWatters, Fraser Trophy Candidates

OTTAWA (CP)—Members of Ottawa Combines, the capital's entry in the Ontario Rugby Football Union, have chosen Arnie McWatters, quarterback and kicking half, and George Fraser, captain and veteran inside wing, as their selections to be placed in the running for the Ormond Beach Memorial Trophy, awarded the most valuable player in the O.R.F.U.

As their third choice, Combines nominated Joe Krol, brilliant halfback with Hamilton Wildcats.

Army Hockey Policy Has Sting

Regina First to Suffer

By CHARLIE EDWARDS
 TORONTO (CP)—It appears the army has the hockey tiger by the tail. If they let go now, the wreckage will be scattered high, wide and handsome. The sting in the army's hockey policy is making itself felt. Immediate withdrawal of the Regina Army team from the Saskatchewan Senior League, with resultant collapse of the entire league, is causing a commotion in that province.

Walt (Saskatoon Star-Phoenix) Riddell says the army's new policy is that no soldier hockey player will be allowed to remain at a training centre after he has completed his course. He also reports the army plans a check-up on hockey players early this month to ascertain how far each is advanced in his training.

"If this information is correct," writes Walt, "it will be almost impossible to keep a soldier in one camp for a five-month hockey schedule."

ASK QUESTIONS
 Dave Dryburgh of the Regina Leader-Post comments: "Left without a senior hockey team for the first time in close to 30 years, Regins are firing a steady stream of questions at military authorities. They've taken the loss of the army team in their stride, but if hockey traffic in the services continues and Ottawa doesn't make a Dominion-wide cleanup, then indignantly Regina citizens will want to know why.

Dryburgh speculates that certain hockey players recently enlisted will not be able to play hockey in cities where there is no basic training centre. He names Ottawa as one such city.

INCIDENTALLY:
 Ken Chisholm of the Halifax Herald quotes Sam Manson, president of Hamilton Wildcats, as saying that if Wildcats win the Dominion football title they will play Halifax Navy "in Ottawa, Toronto or any place else and turn the entire proceeds over to some worthy war fund."

That would appease Halifax, whose application for a C.R.U. playoff berth was refused. Death of Charlie Murray in Fort William recalled he was a great soccer fullback in the years 1906-1913, when the lakehead had high-class football.

Rangers Make Third Hockey Start Tonight

Seek Initial Win At Expense Of Canadiens

MONTREAL (CP)—Canadiens go to battle against New York Rangers here in tonight's lone scheduled National Hockey League game with slightly better than even odds to win.

Although Ken McAuley of Edmonton is reported an efficient netminder he comes here with 13 strikes against him. Toronto scored five counters Saturday night and then Detroit Red Wings took him for eight more Sunday to give the Rangers a pair of losses.

It was recalled that just a year ago the Rangers played their first game of the season here with Steve Buzinski in the nets. Cocky and youthful Steve declared that N.H.L. competition was probably no better than the brand he had been accustomed to out at his native Swift Current, Sask.

Promptly, the big league snipers heaved so many pucks at Buzinski that he failed to stop any more than one out of three and as a result was packed off back to his home.

They say that McAuley is a vastly different type who doesn't underrate the quality of N.H.L. play, and is a smooth and serious workman. He had some senior experience, and reports from Toronto and Detroit say that goals scored against him are of the "earned" variety.

Alex Watson Takes Galt Cup at Oak Bay

Veteran Alex Watson captured the Galt Cup at the Victoria Golf Club, defeating Walter Newcombe 5 and 4 over 36-holes.

In the final of the first flight Stan Haynes defeated Harold Haynes 1 up.

Harold Hepburn and H. A. Tomalin tied for first in the men's par competition, each finishing 3 down.

Sunday the Oak Bay club will celebrate its 50th anniversary with a medal round on handicap. There will be prizes for the low net, first, second and third and low gross. Awards have been donated by Stan Haynes. Competitors will arrange for opponents and starting times. Post entries will be accepted.

British Color-Bar In Boxing Draws Much Criticism

LONDON (CP)—The color-bar of the British Boxing Board of Control received another lambasting from sports writers after Lefty Flynn of Jamaica took an easy 10-round decision over the British and Empire welterweight champion, Ernie Roderick, at London's Albert Hall.

Only British subjects born of white parents can box for British titles although anyone can fight for a British Empire title. Accepting the rule, Flynn has challenged Roderick to a return match with the Empire crown at stake.

Said Frank Butler of the Daily Express: "The stupidity of the color bar rule was shown up when Selvin Campbell, better known as Lefty Flynn, out-generated, outboxed and out-fought the British welterweight champion."

"Flynn proved himself to be the best welterweight in the country. Yet because his skin is black he cannot lay any claim to the welterweight title..."

"We in this country have recognized Joe Louis, Henry Armstrong, John Henry Lewis and other colored boxers as world champions. We've even allowed Roderick to fight Armstrong here for the world title."

"Yet a black-skinned citizen of the British Empire cannot qualify by residence for a British title."

Two Airforce Teams In Soccer Fixture

Another of the mid-week first division soccer matches will be played tomorrow afternoon at Athletic Park, with the league-leading undefeated R.A.F. opposing the R.C.A.F. at 2.45. Joe Obee will referee.

R.A.F. were idle last weekend while the R.C.A.F. dropped a hard-fought 1 to 0 decision to the V.M.D.

Meeting of the Victoria and District League will be held tomorrow night in room 43, Arcade Building, starting at 8.

OAK BAY AND PLAZA THEATRES
Screen comedian Gus Schilling is a happy actor. He has finally been kissed while the movie cameras ground out a permanent record of the event.
Like most comedians whose job is to make people laugh, Gus had yearned for just one romantic scene.

His big chance came in Universal's "Hers to Hold," which co-stars Deanna Durbin and Joseph Cotten. Director Frank Ryan said that Gus was to be kissed by beautiful Pat Styles. The scene is one of the amusing highlights of the picture which is now at the Oak Bay and Plaza Theatres.

CAPITOL THEATRE
Paul Lukas, who stars opposite Bette Davis in Warner Bros. "Watch on the Rhine," currently at the Capitol Theatre, was lured to America by motion pictures in 1927, and for the most part has remained in Hollywood during the ensuing years. His enthusiasm for the country has been so great that he has become a citizen of the United States.

The actor was born in Budapest on May 26. He received his early schooling in the preparatory schools at his birthplace at the College of Budapest and at the Actors' Academy of Hungary.

ATLAS THEATRE
A motion picture without a heroine came today to the Atlas Theatre, now showing M-G-M's "Bataan," grim drama of a courageous, last-stand fight of 13 "ex-patriates" in the Philippine jungles. The story shows with gripping realism the heroism of a courageous group of Americans fighting a delaying action against the Jap invaders. Laid entirely in fox holes and swamps, its cast is headed by Robert Taylor, Tay Garnett directed.

YORK THEATRE
Edward Everett Horton finished his featured role in 20th Century-Fox's "Springtime in the Rockies," the sparkling technical musical now at the York Theatre, and paused for a moment to take stock of his considerable screen career.

It was his one hundredth picture. "Let's see now," recounted the droll veteran, "I've played six butlers, 35 best friends, 23 timid clerks, and about 37 frustrated leading men. But, here is the astounding thing: I had to play in 100 pictures before winning the girl—or any girl, for that matter."

CADET THEATRE
James Craig used his own car in the picnic scenes of "The Human Comedy," now at the Cadet. He said he could handle it better than a strange one because it was needed for exact running shots.

'Hitler's Madman' Drama of Lidice

Ralph Morgan has one of the most dramatic roles of his screen career in M-G-M's "Hitler's Madman," the story of Nazi outrages upon the people and town of Lidice, which comes to the Dominion Theatre today.

Morgan is cast as a kindly Czechoslovakian peasant who is aroused to murder when his countrymen are attacked by Germans under "der henker," Reinhard Heydrich, played by John Carradine.

The role adds another creditable performance to a list which includes roles in "Rasputin" with the Barrymores, "The Son-Daughter" with Helen Hayes, "Power and the Glory" with Spencer Tracy, "Anthony Adverse" and "Zola."

Others in the cast include Patricia Morrison, Alan Curtis, Edgar Kennedy, Blanche Yurka, Howard Freeman and Ludwig Stossel.

Tests Proved Stegomyia Mosquito Guilty of Spreading Fever

When Dr. Gorgas talked about yellow fever with his friend, Dr. Finlay, he said:

"You tell me that yellow fever is spread by Stegomyia mosquitoes, but how do you know that? Have you ever made a test which showed that a person would come down with the fever after being bitten by a mosquito?"

Finlay said that he had made tests, but that the people bitten had not become ill. In some cases he had let the mosquitoes bite yellow fever patients before biting well persons, but no harm had followed. Yet Finlay said that other reasons made him feel sure that mosquitoes spread the disease.

Gorgas said Finlay's idea was interesting but was without proof. That proof came later. Two doctors in Havana fell sick with yellow fever and both of them said they had been bitten before by mosquitoes. Dr. Jesse Labaree had watched a mosquito bite him while in a hospital where yellow fever patients were kept.

Lazarus died of the fever, but before he passed away he said he was sure the mosquito which had bitten him was of the Stegomyia breed. That was the same kind Finlay had accused of spreading the disease.

Another doctor, Walter Reed of Virginia, now made very careful tests. These tests proved beyond doubt that the Stegomyia mosquito could spread yellow fever. It was necessary, however, for the biting to take place during the first three days a patient was ill, or else later bites would not harm other persons. Also the mosquito needed 10 days, or a bit more, to develop yellow fever germs in its own body.

Quickly Gorgas set to work. This time he made war on mosquitoes and their breeding places. Mud puddles were dried up, and soldiers were sent to every house in Havana. Barrels with rain water were covered with screens on netting. People no longer were allowed to keep open jars of water about their homes.

In that way Havana was really cleaned up, and the yellow fever epidemic was brought to an end. (For history or general interest section of your scrap-book.)

Dorothy Dix

Dear Miss Dix—I have a daughter just 15 who is insisting upon getting married. She is in the third grade of grammar school, but she refuses to finish school, and I want her to finish school, but she refuses to do any more. The boy she wants to marry has nothing but the small salary he earns and they couldn't possibly live on that. She loves to drink and keep late hours. What can I do about her? I have talked to her and threatened her, but it doesn't seem to help any.

WORRIED MOTHER.

DISCIPLINE OF CHILD BEGINS AT CRADLE

Answer: Evidently you have been a very lax mother who has let her daughter do just as she pleased ever since she was born, and so you have no authority over her now. You have to begin disciplining children when they are in the cradle. You can't give them their heads until they are 15 and then try to control them. It is too late. So you can't keep your little girl from making this foolish marriage that will ruin her life.

Pork and Beans Not Due for Release Yet

Several weeks are expected to elapse before a dozen items of canned goods, listed by the War-time Prices and Trade Board for release to the public, appear on grocery shelves in any quantity in Victoria, a board officer said today.

"Pork and beans are among canned goods to be released, but I don't know in what quantities and it will be sometime before the goods appear for it will take manufacturers time to get caught up," he said.

Due for release are: Apple pie filler, fruits for salads, sauerkraut, mince meat, pea soup, spaghetti, edible oils, lard and shortening, corn, cane and maple syrup. An increase of 50 per cent in the amount of tin plate for sandwich spreads and potted meat containers has been authorized.

The meeting will take the place of that originally scheduled Oct. 28. Several speakers will be heard at the gathering, including Vancouver men. Indications efforts would be made to restrain the city authorities from using the equipment by means of an injunction were given by Mr. Langley.

The Premier warned that the dimout restrictions which have been suspended may be renewed in full force and effect at any time and from time to time as may be deemed necessary because of the military situation.

New Names Swell City Voters' List

More new voters have been added to the city's voters' list this year than in any year in recent history, it was learned at the City Hall today.

Admiral Sheridan Here Next Week

Engr-Rear-Admiral Henry A. Sheridan, C.B., who has served as naval member of the British Supply Board in North America and deputy head of the British Admiralty Technical Mission, with headquarters at Ottawa, will visit Victoria early next week in connection with developments in the Pacific area.

He is expected to remain in the city for some time, and will be a guest at the Empress Hotel.

Admiral Sheridan has a distinguished naval career. He entered the Royal Navy in 1900 and served in the 1914-18 Great War in H.M. ships King Edward VII, Nicator and Tryphon, and after termination of hostilities in H.M.S. Orion, Saumarez, Campbell, Cumberland and Valiant.

In 1932 he served as squadron engineer officer on the staff of the commodore commanding the Home Fleet destroyer flotilla and as fleet engineer officer on the staff of the commander-in-chief in the Mediterranean. He was appointed engineer rear-admiral in 1939.

R. W. Mayhew Urges A.R.P. to Maintain Present Strength

Nothing the dimout could be applied again at a few hours notice, but a weakening of A.R.P. would take months to revive, R. W. Mayhew, Victoria M.P., said today in commenting on the suspension of the dimout along the Pacific Coast that so long as the Japanese retain their hold in the South Pacific the menace to western Canada could not be minimized.

The people, he said, should not be lulled into a sense of absolute security which was not warranted.

"I do not believe that the authorities for a moment intend the people to consider the relaxation in such a minor matter as a dimout meant that all danger had passed," Mr. Mayhew said.

"There must not be a relaxation of effort in industry or in civilian endeavor. We must continue to be vigilant and to retain all the services of defence and offence on the Pacific coast as well as our air raid precautionary units. I would be extremely disappointed to see the efficiency of A.R.P. units impaired.

"We should maintain and encourage that splendid organization of voluntary effort that gave a lift to morale in the dark days following Pearl Harbor," he continued. "There should not be a lessening of interest in the work of A.R.P. lest there be weakening effort in other branches of vital war work."

MUST KEEP A.R.P.

Mayor Andrew McGavin indicated today that despite the apparent easing of the military situation on the Pacific coast, as indicated by the suspension of the dimout, the strength of the A.R.P. organization must be maintained.

He has set a meeting of the City Council war board for Thursday morning. Policy on A.R.P. matters will be discussed then.

With other services disbanding the A.R.P. must make an even greater effort to maintain and increase efficiency, Insp. A. H. Bishop, Victoria A.R.P. controller, said.

"We do not know what may happen here and must be ready to assume a great deal of responsibility in case of an emergency," he said.

"Victoria has an excellent A.R.P. organization, in the opinion of outside authorities, and I have every reason to believe that the loyalty shown by the wardens in the past will continue, and that they will serve without any slackening of effort."

He said that several senior wardens had affirmed their willingness to continue with the A.R.P.

2 Airmen in Court On Assault Charges

Three charges of indecent assault of females were before the city court today.

Sgt. William Alfred Roper, R.C.A.F. wireless air gunner, was charged with indecent assault of a member of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.) shortly after midnight today.

A new charge, of indecently assaulting a woman last Thursday night, was read against Cpl. Bernard Brankin, R.C.A.F. ground wireless operator, who pleaded not guilty.

Trial on an earlier charge against Brankin was completed today but Magistrate H. C. Hall remanded the accused for judgment.

Testifying in the first case against Brankin, Constables Ray Maitland and Brooke Douglas told of arresting the accused at Rockland and Quadra after they had learned of the assault at 7:45 Thursday night last.

The constables said they had found the accused crouching behind a hedge near Pioneer Square and after a struggle in which both constables took part the accused was brought to the city police station.

Both witnesses said the accused was positively identified by the complainant in a line-up of other air force men.

Bail for Sgt. Roper was set at $500 and the accused was remanded without plea or election until Thursday.

In speaking of bail, Claude L. Harrison, city prosecutor, asked for a substantial sum.

Sgt. Roper, according to police bulletins, was taken into custody shortly after 12:35 this morning following a complaint that a woman had been assaulted outside 1034 Pandora Avenue.

Missing Victorian Gets Commission

Gorrill, Creston; G. D. Allester, Chelmsford; W. E. Bliz and N. A. S. Hastings, Vancouver; R. J. Burns, Duncan; H. A. Price (address not given).

Victoria Far Behind In Victory Loan

Courtesy is the first of the Vancouver Island units to go over her quota in Fifth Victory Loan, National War Finance officials report today. With a quota of $450,000, this area, organized by A. Gillespie, has so far totaled $451,050 worth of Victory bonds.

Second in the inter-unit competition of the island is Esquimalt under Maj. George Yardley, with $466,050 of a $625,000 objective.

Victoria city unit is still far behind. From figures released at noon today, it is obvious that for the first time Victoria will fall in her quota unless citizens of this area respond immediately. With little more than half her objective of $4,200,000 pledged, a further $1,799,950 is required.

J. D. Munro, Victoria unit organizer, in making an urgent plea to Victorians to ensure support for Canadians fighting, made the following statement to the press.

"At the end of the second week of our three-weeks' drive for the Fifth Victory Loan, we find ourselves with only 60 per cent of our objective attained.

"Vancouver has 78 per cent of its quota in the same period. The basis of the setting of quotas for the two cities is identical, so it must be concluded that Victoria is not supporting the loan to the same degree as Vancouver.

"This is a serious situation. During the week-end Victoria men who have fought in Italy spoke over the radio, telling in part what they are doing over there. The purchase of Victory bonds is a tangible way of showing what we are doing here.

"Victorians are buying Victory bonds, but they are not buying enough of them. We do not want our loan effort to be too little and too late. We need your maximum effort now, and your maximum effort is now every cent you can spare comfortably, but every cent you can save through self-denial."

At noon today final figures, with amount still to be invested in brackets, show respective standing of the island units. National War Finance officials point out that totals are the full amounts subscribed, that no figures are being withheld.

Victoria, $2,400,050 ($1,799,950); Saanich, $540,100 ($409,900); Oak Bay, $29,200 ($400,800); Esquimalt, $466,050 ($158,950); Cowichan, $520,000 ($210,000); Courtenay, $42,050 (quota, $450,000); Nanaimo, $24,000 ($240,000); and Alberni, $342,150 ($277,850).

Firm Fined $400 In Prices Charges

Largest fine on a Wartime Price and Trade Board charge in Victoria was imposed today by Magistrate H. C. Hall on Max Luxemburg and Nathan Snider, proprietors of the ABC Electric Co., 807 Fort Street, which was fined $400 and $10 costs.

The pair of accused had pleaded guilty to two charges of selling used mechanical refrigerators above the ceiling price set by the used goods administrator.

Each of the accused, represented by H. W. Davey, was fined $100 and $2.50 costs on each charge.

In evidence last week it was stated the firm had sold a used refrigerator on which the ceiling price was $83, for $275.

In passing sentence today, Magistrate Hall said he was noting one refrigerator had been bought before the prices board regulation was announced, but sold after the order became effective last May. The other machine was purchased and sold after the regulations became effective.

Saanich Trade Board

The secession movement in Wards 5 and 6 received the endorsement of the Saanich Board of Trade Monday night at a meeting at the Brentwood Women's Institute Hall. A resolution was unanimously passed.

Tribute was paid to the late Robert P. Butchart, honorary president of the board. Letters of condolence will be sent to Mrs. Butchart and to former Reeve William Crouch, whose wife died last week.

Revival of the Brentwood water scheme was discussed.

Thinks Mitchell Dined at Home Night of Murder

Opinion that William Mitchell, charged with the murder of Molly Justice on the evening of Jan. 18, was at his Rock Bay boarding house eating dinner around 6 that evening was voiced in Assize Court today by his landlord at that time, A. H. Phelps.

Miss Justice was last seen alive by witnesses at the present trial when she left the Douglas-Ralph bus shortly after 6 at Seymour St. that night.

In direct evidence to Prosecutor G. A. Cameron, Phelps had said Mitchell had a black eye about Jan. 20. He had seen no other marks on the accused's face, witness said.

Under cross-examination by P. J. Sinnott, defence counsel, witness said Mitchell's attitude to womenfolk in the Phelps's home, where the accused boarded, had been gentlemanly. Questioned about the evening meal Jan. 18, Phelps said the family usually ate between 5.30 and 6.

"As near as I can figure out I came back about 6.15 to 6.30 and I think Mitchell was having dinner then," witness said. He testified the pipes had been frozen that night and the only available water in the house was in the kitchen. Mitchell had not taken any hot water away, he said. He saw no wig in Mitchell's possession and noticed no change in his clothing about the time of the crime.

Mr. Phelps testified he knew a boy, Hulbert, and had ordered him out of the house because the youth was a nuisance coming in at all hours of the day without knocking.

Similar testimony was given by Ida Phelps, wife.

Vernon Ross Porter, British America Paint Co., produced work records to the effect both Mitchell and Hulbert had worked from 8 in the morning to 5 in the evening of Jan. 18 and 19.

30 to 25 WOUNDS

Dr. J. H. Moore outlined in detail the wounds suffered by Miss Justice, said death was due to hemorrhage, most likely from a wound puncturing the jugular vein. There were 30 to 25 wounds, the doctor said, adding they could have been made by a knife similar to that reportedly taken from the effects of the accused following his arrest. A similar knife could have been used, he said. Dr. Moore added he thought, from the condition of the girl's body, her assailant had been a little stronger than she was.

G. Cave-Brown-Cave, analyst, B.C. Department of Mines, said a test applied to find foreign matter on gloves discovered by the scene of the crime was not foolproof in determining the presence of blood.

Sgt. Elwell was recalled for a trial within a trial regarding a statement. The evidence was ruled inadmissible.

W. G. Christopher, authority on knives, said the knife produced in court had been ground down a quarter of an inch at the point and an eighth of an inch along the edge. It was a stockman's knife, he said, differing somewhat from the ordinary penknife, but not particularly unusual.

Donald Stancil, who recently pleaded guilty of theft of a hot water boiler, but last week was granted a new trial, was remanded for judgment in city court today following completion of his hearing.

Stancil was charged with stealing a hot water boiler, property of E. L. Tait, from 352 Gorge Road East. The accused was represented by Arthur J. Patton.

Cape Beale Upholds Naval Loan Record

One of the senior skippers of the Fishermen's Reserve fleet, Skpr-Cox'n. Edgar Arnet, of Prince Rupert and Vancouver has provided the Navy Victory Loan, effort on Vancouver Island with a further record subscription.

Commanding his own ship, the H.M.C.S. Cape Beale, Skpr-Cox'n. Arnet and his seven-man crew have subscribed to date $850 which is double their quota.

Mr. Arnet who came on active service early in September, 1939, is one of the fishermen who answered the call at the outbreak of hostilities. He is often referred to as "the Dean of the Fisherman's Reserve." In his many experiences in civilian life as a fisherman, Skpr. Arnet and his crew can relate real stories of ingenious seamanship. Once when his crew had dropped off, and his boat was wallowing in the mountainous waves on the wild Pacific coast, he and the crew rigged up a paddle-wheel to bring the crippled vessel back to port.

B.C. Surplus To Top Year Ago, Hart Forecasts
Prime Minister Hart said today the current income of the B.C. government during 1942-43 exceeded materially that of the previous year and that current expenditures, including the cost of unemployment relief, were substantially lower, with the result that the net revenue surplus accruing to the province exceeds greatly that of $5,196,000 enjoyed during 1941-42. The reduction in expenditures is due chiefly to the decrease in interest payments with respect to the public debt as well as the considerable decrease in unemployment relief costs.

Deer Hunters Bag Cougar, Bear

"Mickey" McCoy, 739 Burke, above left, and Percy Brown, 1137 Mason, right, and Bob McIlroy, Walter Avenue, went deer hunting at Sooke Sunday and returned with cougar and a black bear. "I guess that's why we couldn't find any deer," commented

Brown, as a crowd of people inspected the wild animals on his car outside the Times building Monday.

The men were in Leechtown area of Sooke Hills when they came across the small cougar walking along the road. McCoy shot it. Brown was later walking up a trail when he met the small black bear walking down the mountainside. "There just wasn't room for the two of us, so I shot him," he explained.

Assessments Fall, Collections Gain, G. A. Okell Reports

During the last three years, new construction has added approximately $800,000 to the city's taxable assessment on improvements, despite the assessor's policy of reducing improvement values for taxation purposes by 5 per cent every two years, G. A. Okell, city assessor-collector, reported to the City Council today.

Tracing his actions since becoming assessor in 1928, he described his re-assessment of the city prior to the slump which saw values reduced by approximately $16,000,000 from 1932 to 1940.

To offset the biennial reduction of 5 per cent on improvements, new construction of $1,000,000 a year is required, he said, adding that had been forthcoming during the last three years. That partial gain has been reduced by a 28 per cent reduction in land assessments since 1932 to 1940.

COLLECTIONS CLIMB

While the taxation base has been narrowed, actual collections show a much improved condition since 1935, the year Mr. Okell was named collector.

"At that time," he reported, "arrears of taxes owing were $829,192, including general arrears $711,655, local improvement $10,974, consolidated arrears $106,563. By Jan. 1, 1937, this had been reduced to $716,994, including local improvements and consolidated arrears.

"Every property owner owing any delinquent taxes is notified some two months before tax sale and unless these taxes are paid that his property is liable for tax sale and is asked to come in and talk the matter over with the collector if in difficulty and see what can be done," the report continued. "By talking the matter over a great many people agree to pay a specified amount per month, thereby saving their property from tax sale, and I might say that over 2,000 property owners are paying their taxes by monthly payments today; a habit we do all in our power to encourage.

ARREARS CUT $618,947

"The net result of the adoption of these methods is that on Jan. 1 this year, all outstanding arrears of taxes amounted to $210,245.61, or a reduction in arrears owing since 1935 to Dec. 31, 1942, of $618,947.33. I believe the policy adopted has been fully justified and while it means a little more trouble and work the results have been really worth while.

"In spite of a reduced assessment a steady reduction in property taxes has taken place. In 1936 the mill rate was 45 mills and the levy $1,688,956.30. In 1942 the mill rate was 37 mills and the levy $1,336,350.12, a reduction of $352,606.18 in taxes levied on real property. Percentage of collections in 1935 was 76.41 per cent; in 1936, 78.35 per cent, and in 1942, 91.346 per cent.

European Advisory Board Meets Soon

LONDON (CP) — The European advisory commission, authorized by the Moscow foreign secretaries' conference to co-ordinate political strategy of Britain, Russia and the United States, will be established almost immediately and begin its meetings in London, possibly before the end of this month, it was learned today.

It was noted that the commission's task is to deal with "questions arising as the war develops." Such questions undoubtedly include political warfare against Austria, Germany's satellites, and Germany itself.

Any peace proposals presumably will be submitted to this commission before action is taken by the three governments.

It was not known whether such international postwar issues as the future of Poland, the Baltic States and the Balkans will be handled by this commission, or whether they will be left to special commissions created by the conference to deal with certain questions on which "decisions of principles were taken."

Burial of Two Victoria Fliers

In a peaceful English cemetery at Pershaw, which is just outside Birmingham, two Victoria boys, Sgt. Pilot Fred Herbert Partridge and FO John B. deMacedo, were laid to rest early this month. The above picture shows the burial service.

Partridge and deMacedo were killed when a Wellington bomber the former was piloting, crashed. Three other occupants of the plane parachuted to safety.

Don Christian, another Victoria

boy, who served as wireless air gunner in Partridge's crew, did not make the fatal flight, being grounded with a heavy cold.

Partridge was the son of Frank H. Partridge, 131 Wellington Avenue, and Mrs. C. P. Partridge, 1160 Richardson Street. DeMacedo was the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. H. deMacedo, 1116 Fort Street. Christian is the son of Mrs. John Christian, 1536 Belcher Avenue, and the late Capt. Christian.

Essential Foods Adequate In Canada; Oranges Scarce

By JAMES MCCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Canadians have sufficient essential foods to maintain health, but recurring shortages of some supplies, like oranges, are common, a survey by the Canadian Press revealed today.

From Halifax to Victoria supplies of most meats are sufficient, although some cities reported bacon and other pork products "rare." But with one voice the cities reported a severe shortage of oranges.

With respect to meats generally, pork products not included, the Maritimes reported good supplies, while Montreal noted that poultry meat was not plentiful. In Quebec the meat situation was "fair." Ontario's meat situation is fair.

The prairie provinces, which include many ranches within their borders, reported good beef, veal and lamb stocks, but were little better off than other parts of Canada in respect to pork products. Manitoba reported prices from 32 to 81 cents a dozen for oranges.

Merchants in several cities said bananas are "only a memory." In Montreal, Quebec and the Maritimes citrus fruits are scarce. Canned fruits have vanished from shelves in many places along with salmon, canned vegetables, peanut butter and similar lines.

Locally-grown vegetables have been in fair supply in most Ontario cities.

In the Maritimes and west, apples were said to be in fair supply, but some Ontario cities accustomed to plentiful supplies were not so cheerful. In Vancouver there was a report apple rationing might be necessary due to a poor crop but, although it might be no consolation, there appeared to be plenty of lemons in the coast city stores.

The prairies, too, reported apples usually available, with fancy McIntosh Reds selling at three pounds for 27 cents in Regina. In Manitoba, Jonathans sold at three pounds for 25 cents.

Despite the demand for eggs, most cities reported enough to go around, although there was not the abundance of prewar days and in some centres supplies were definitely short.

Toronto merchants said the supply of onions was inadequate, and it was expected supplies of old potatoes would have to be drawn from the United States this winter—something not done for 20 years.

ALTHOUGH RALPH MORGAN has been against resisting the enemy, he changes his viewpoint quickly when the impact of Heydrich's atrocities hit home in M-G-M's "Hitler's Madman," now at the Dominion Theatre. Here Morgan is giving his blessing to Patricia Morison, his daughter, and her lover, Alan Curtis, as they are about to leave Lidice after plotting the death of Heydrich.
